

Minnesota Erosion Control Association Awards

Each year at the annual conference, MECA recognizes outstanding individuals and projects. If you know of someone or some project that deserves recognition, please submit a nomination form which includes a description of the project, person or company's work, the award category, and why the award should be given. Each year the MECA Board will accept and review the nominations and determine which awards will be given and to whom.

Award Categories:

Innovation Award – awarded to an individual, company, government agency or organization that has developed new products or ideas that have advanced the field of erosion and sediment control or stormwater management.

Industry Leadership – awarded to an individual, company, government agency or organization that has demonstrated leadership in the erosion and sediment control, or stormwater management field

Environmental Excellence- awarded to an individual, company, government agency or organization for a project that is deemed excellent based on many factors including, but not limited to; innovation, partnership, water quality and quantity protection, and project success.

Environmental Leadership – awarded to an individual, company, government agency or organization who has shown leadership in advancing effective erosion and sediment control and stormwater management or other water resource related fields that have advanced water resource quality in Minnesota.

MECA Recognition Award – awarded to an individual who has been actively involved with MECA and contributed significant time and effort to MECA's work.
